

BIG TRAIN

AND THE LOCO MOTIVES

Jimbo 'Big Train' Madsen

The guy that created the term "Red Dirt Blues". Its that mix of Muddy Waters, J.J. Cale, John Lee Hooker, Leon Russell, and all that blues feeling south of the Red River between Oklahoma and Texas.

Bill 'Top Dog' Cummins

Crying, wailing, screaming, weeping, growling...all on the harmonica. The Top Dog is a harp phenom, coaxing the most amazing tone from that little piece of wood and metal magic.

Mike 'Pine Box' Lander

The "King of Found Sound" is the bedrock that this whole hot Red Dirt Blues is built on. If anyone can bring rhythm out of some discarded bottle or hubcap, "Pine Box" can!

Curly Casey Saunders

"Curly" Saunders is the newest member of Big Train and the Loco Motives. This seasoned blues player is without a doubt the "king of the walking bass line".

Big Train and the Loco Motives are ready to bring their up-tempo blues show to you!

Big Train and the Loco Motives bring you "Red Dirt Blues". It's that sound of traditional Mississippi Delta Blues mixed together with Texas Boogie Woogie and Chicago Electric Blues. Then sprinkle with a little red dirt found in the sounds of Oklahoma natives Leon Russell, D.C Minner, Elvin Bishop, and Watermelon Slim and...TA-DA!!
